SOCIETY OF HYPNOSIS

Immunity and Viruses and how to boost immune function using hypnotherapy.

This webinar will be conducted by ASH Ltd Monday 20th June 2022 at 7.30pm Sydney time.

WHO CAN JOIN IN?

This one-hour webinar is available to registered health and allied health professionals, social workers, counsellors and speech pathologists for the modest cost of $22.00 including GST. It is free for financial members of the Australian Society of Hypnosis Ltd.

WHY THIS TOPIC?

This winter season we should be thinking of how we can use hypnosis to assist our immune systems in the fight against Covid and influenza viruses. There is a field of research confirming that the immune system can be modulated through hypnosis.

WHO WILL PRESENT WHAT?

This webinar will be conducted by our President Dr Annette Webb together with Dr Doris Brett, who is a well-known teacher/trainer for the Victorian Branch of the Society. Dr Webb will address the research and the science and practical applications of hypnotherapy related to the immune system while Dr Brett will cover how practitioners craft scripts for their individual patients.

WHO ARE THE PRESENTERS?

Dr Webb is a psychotherapist, clinical hypnotherapist and paediatric gastroenterologist and President of our Society while working in private practice and in the Department of Gastroenterology Royal Melbourne Hospital.

Dr Brett is a clinical psychologist and a psychotherapist who has been working with hypnosis for 48 years. She has also worked extensively with hypnosis in the area of oncology and other medical illnesses. She is an expert in the area of Eriksonian hypnotherapy as well as an accomplished novelist and poet.

This is a one-hour webinar, where, in keeping with our Webinar Protocol, questions posed in the chat section will be addressed in the last 10 minutes.

The presenters have agreed to record this session and non- members can purchase this together with the slides for $22.00 including GST. ASH financial members access this through the password protected Members Area on the website
